VI. Financial contributions from the ISU in favor of the sport activity of the organizing Member (Rule 106)

Rule 106 states that, for all ISU Events, the contributions to Members (which include any contributions towards prize money) are based on the budget prepared by the Council and approved by the Congress, but the Council must respect criteria to ensure that the interest of all ISU Members is observed and respected.

Consequently, within the limits of the Congress’ accepted overall budget for contributions to the sport activity of the organizing Member, the ISU Council decides upon the allocation of the financial contribution to each Event.

Members applying for any ISU Championships will, upon request, receive an indication from the ISU Director General of the provisory ISU financial contribution allocated to the corresponding Championships.

However, taking into account the decreasing amount of financial support available for sport, including the ISU sports, from TV and rink board sponsors, the Council considers it appropriate to give notice to the Members that in considering applications for ISU Championships, the Council will welcome applications that guarantee the maintenance of high ISU standards for the event and at the same time offer savings to the ISU in the contribution amounts customarily paid, the sharing of revenues between the Member and the ISU, or other creative financial proposals that assist the ISU in maintaining a sound financial position for the long term benefit of the ISU sports. At time of the provisional allotments, such financial proposals made by Members applying for ISU Championships will be taken into account among other pertinent criteria such as a geographical rotation of the respective Championships, the applying Members history as organizer of International competitions and international involvement in the respective ISU discipline as well as the available infrastructure (ice rink, hotels). It is understood that the respective proposal for such savings and/or revenue sharing and/or other creative financial proposals must be backed up by a specific budget and appropriate and verifiable guarantees.

The ISU Council will indicate the consequent ISU contribution when deciding the provisional allotments and endeavor to confirm at the time of the final allotment the amount in line with the provisory indication.

The ISU Council reserves however the right to reduce the indicated financial contribution if required by economic or other pertinent reasons, in particular but not limited to the case that the financial situation of the ISU should substantially deteriorate as a result of reduced revenues for TV and sponsorship contracts from the relevant markets.

The ISU Director General will inform the organizing Member of the final financial ISU contribution as well as the schedule/date of payment(s) after the ISU June Council Meeting preceding the Championships. Upon acceptance of the final allotment by the organizing Member, no additional ISU contribution can be considered.

The ISU Council would further reserve the right to reduce the ISU financial contribution to the organizers in the case that the organizers do not fully comply with all obligations undertaken by the Member/organizer under the ISU Regulations (Rule 106, paragraph 2), the respective ISU Memorandum and this Communication.

VII. For the expenses of ISU Officials, competitors etc. please consult Rule 137, as well as the respective Memorandum

Prize money must be awarded in accordance with the current ISU Communication, i.e. currently Communication No. 1286 or any later updating of this Communication.

IX. Insurance of ISU Championships

The ISU maintains cancellation insurance in case of the cancellation, abandonment, postponement, curtailment, interruption or relocation of the insured Championships due to any cause beyond the control of the ISU or the Organizers, but not including terrorism risk, nor communicable diseases such as SARS or bird-flu. The Championships are presently insured for actually incurred expenses up to the amount of the ISU contribution (excluding Prize Money). The insured sums will be communicated to the respective organizing Member in due time.

Every organizer can, at its own choice and cost, insure for a higher sum at the same premium rate as the ISU. The risk of Terrorism can also be included for an additional premium.

The ISU also maintains insurance against Legal liability in respect of bodily injury, illness or disease and/or loss or damage to property of third parties with a Limit of Indemnity of US$ 10,000,000.

NOTE: Cover for events held in United States of America can only be included on an Excess basis, above a minimum locally placed Limit of US$ 1,000,000.

The premiums for both insurance policies will be paid by the ISU in advance and is taken into account in the determination of the ISU financial contribution.

X. Information regarding the Championships Hotels

Detailed information regarding the hotels is needed, so that the ISU can better compare the different applications. Please state the prices in US$ equivalent as well as the location of all hotels and the distance to the stadium. A brochure of the hotel should also be enclosed.

XI. Press conferences and promotion campaigns

When a Member has been provisionally or definitely allotted ISU Championships, they must organize press conferences and promotion campaigns. These obligations must be confirmed in the application.

XII. Memorandum for Guidance in holding ISU Championships

The Member applying for a Championship must confirm in writing that it will observe and follow the most recent edition of the respective Memorandum and any subsequent updating. Memorandums are available upon request from the ISU Secretariat. Any substantial financial implications resulting from changes between the Memorandums in force at time of application and at the time of the Championships will be resolved in due time.
